Arlington, VA -- VPD Government Solutions is proud to mark its 15-year anniversary, an important milestone for the company and the team behind its continued growth.

What began as a growing business has developed into a trusted partner supporting federal clients across a range of mission-focused needs, including program management, acquisition support, strategic communications, grants management, and infrastructure planning.

“This milestone is really about our people,” said Jeffrey Voigt, CEO/Founder. “VPD’s success has been shaped by the talent, commitment, and care our team brings to the work every day. We are grateful for the clients and partners who have trusted us along the way, and we are excited to continue building on that foundation.”

As VPD enters its next chapter, the company remains focused on delivering dependable support, strengthening relationships, and continuing to grow with the same dedication that has guided its work since the beginning.
